

Google for Administrators

Gregg Eilers

Luke Hibbard

Audience: School and District Leaders (Admin)

Gregg Eilers – Project Coordinator of Educational Technology, Stanislaus County Office of Education, Modesto, Ca.

Gregg is the Project Coordinator of Ed. Tech in Modesto, CA at the Stanislaus County Office of Education. Previously he worked 15 years for the Modesto City Schools district as a 6th grade classroom teacher. Gregg holds a Masters Degree in Education Media Design and Technology from Full Sail University where he was elected Valedictorian of his class and earned the Advanced Achievement Award by his colleagues. He also is a Google Certified Educator, Trainer, and Innovator and holds Leading Edge Certifications in Professional Learning Leader and Digital Educator.

Luke Hibbard – Principal, Emilie J. Ross Middle School, Hughson, Ca.

Luke Hibbard is the Principal at Emilie J. Ross Middle School in Hughson, CA. He has embraced this roll as a site leader following 8 years as Coordinator for Technology and Professional Development at the Stanislaus County Office of Education. Prior to that he spent 10 amazing years as a classroom teacher in Empire Union Schools, he transitioned to the county office where he has assisted with technology integration into classroom instruction as well as the 1:1 implementation into the alternative education setting. His passion is helping educators develop 21st century skills that ultimately produce students that are career and college ready.